Hello there,

We have just completed our first house sitting assignment, which happened to be in Melbourne. Our tasks were to care for a cute little dog, and his owner's house, while his owner went overseas for a month.

It was a wonderful experience, and fulfilled all our expectations. We were able to enjoy the company of the little dog, and be very comfortable in a lovely house in a great location.

While we were in Melbourne, we were able to visit other prospective home owners, and now have more assignments for the future.

Your website is really great, and easy to navigate, and allows all parties as much privacy as they desire. We are very grateful for the assistance you have given us, and look forward to many more house-sits. We have met some wonderful home owners, and they will no doubt become friends. We have already been invited back to our first "friend".

We would highly recommend your web site to anyone who is interested in house sitting.

Kind Regards,
Lesleigh and Dany [REDACTED]
