Dear Madam/Sir

My name is Carmen B [REDACTED] and I had placed an ad on your website for a house and pet sitter. I am very happy to tell you that I found a couple who are just perfect for my needs. They are acutally arriving on Thursday 11 May to start looking after my two cats and my house which is in Hervey Bay, Queensland. I will be leaving for my 8 month long overseas trip on 22 May. I know that the couple will work out just great as we have been in touch both by phone and email and they actually don't seem like strangers even at this point although I have not met them in person yet. So a thank you to your website and staff who have made it possible for me to go away overseas for 8 months and leave both my home and my cats in the hands of a couple who are very much looking forward to being here.

I will send you an email on how things went in joust about 8 months from now.

Sincerely yours, Carmen B [REDACTED]
