Hello again Malcolm,

I just wanted to let you know that I have filled my house sitting vacancy and removed my little ad from the site.

I also wanted to let you know how incredibly impressed I have been with your service and with the quality of the people who contacted me. I had 12 responses within 24 hours AND I think that almost all of them would have been more than suitable. Choosing between such good people was the most difficult part of this whole experience for me.

I will definitely use Happy House Sitters again and I will recommend it to all of my dog walking friends.

Regards

Moira [REDACTED]
