Subject: THE UPDATE!!! FW: Housesitting

Hi Malcolm,

Well... I am just over the moon!!! You may recall when I first joined Happy House Sitters I immediately applied for a property at Kundabung, 33kms north of Port Macquarie. I couldn't believe my luck when I received the e-mail below on Sunday. After not hearing from them, I thought the property must have been taken. I rang them straight away and am flying up to Port Macquarie on 28th February, 2008. I will spend a few days with the Trish and Rob and they head to Europe on 5th March, 2008. I will then pick them up from the Airport on 6th April, 2008. Trish asked me if I played golf. I said not very well. She said I can practice heaps on their very own 14 hole golf course!!!!

I am currently in Camp Mountain and loving and treasuring every precious moment. I think I mentioned I arrived on 13th October, 2008 and can't believe I only have about one week Thursday before I go and pick up Doug and Kath from the Airport. My Victorian friends say I "still" have 8 days or so and I say I "only" have 8 days or so!!!!

I will then stay the night with Doug and Kath and catch up on their American holiday. We have been corresponding regularly and they tell how very grateful and indebted they are. I remind them it is a two way street and I am incredibly grateful and indebted too. They have welcomed me to their home at any time and said they can now organise more holidays knowing they can just call on me.

I've been corresponding with Dorothy at Tallebudgera. She is currently working out her dates but expects sometime after 19th January, 2008 for 3 or so weeks. They have a 2 acre property, 10 metre swimming pool and a tennis court. They have a four wheel drive, another vehicle and 2 mountain bikes I am welcome to.

I had no intention of doing Victorian sits but couldn't resist a property in Yea. It is a 120 year old cottage nestled on 1200 acres. I had a barbie with the Owners before I arrived here and am looking after their property from 16th December to 27th December. I will also return in April for 2 weeks.

In May I head to Caloundra for 3 weeks and we have exchanged a few e-mails.

In between all of this I have been flooded with offers as well. I was offered a property in Alice Springs but I hadn't heard from the Owner so once again assumed it was taken and accepted the Yea sit which is a truly spectacular property. She said she would keep my details and hope we can work out something in the future.

I feel like the luckiest person and actually feel sorry for people who do not get to live their dreams.

Every single Owner has expressed that this is the first time they have used your site. They also say they are spreading the word.

I tell everyone and*anyone who will listen to me about Happy House Sitters.

I am doing as much advertising for you as I possibly can and direct heaps of people to your site.

Not only do I feel indebted and grateful to all the Owners but more particularly to you!!!!!! You assisted me greatly when I was becoming a member and as I tell the world it is the best money I have ever spent.

Thank you a million times over. I've met and am about to meet the most delightful people all over Australia as well as being able to enjoy their magnificent properties.

Best regards,

Janelle

A VERY HAPPY HOUSE-SITTER!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
